Dear Friends of Great Music,

It gives me great pleasure to be able to welcome you to another season of the Great Music Series at Church of the Redeemer. I want to thank you deeply for your continuing support, and I hope to see you in person at one of our concerts this season.

Church of the Redeemer has a decades-long history of having some of the best music in the Sarasota area, both inside and outside of the mass. These special music events are made possible through your generous gifts. Please consider making a donation to the Great Music Series so that we may continue to bring you world-class performances.

Faithfully,
Sam Nelson, Organist and Choirmaster
Church of the Redeemer
