

CHURCH of the REDEEMER

MEMORIAL WALL

Expansion & Reservation Opportunity

*I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.
John 11:25 (KJV)*

MEMORIAL WALL EXPANSION

*For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
Job 19:25 (KJV)*

The current memorial wall is full.

The St. Francis Garden features a fountain at the center.

The St. Francis Garden is the traditional site on the grounds of Redeemer for Christian burial. Since the Garden's dedication on Trinity Sunday in 1982, the interment of ashes of our faithful departed has taken place on this consecrated ground. Interment in the St. Francis Garden is, and always will be, free.

In the Garden, the branches of a large oak tree provide a shady spot ideal for prayer and reflection. A fountain in the center of the Garden depicts St. Francis.

As the years have passed, the number of names inscribed has grown. The current memorial wall is now fully reserved, and there is an urgent need for another wall. A new wall will allow for hundreds of additional permanent inscriptions to be memorialized at Redeemer.

He that believeth hath everlasting life.

The new memorial wall will soon be installed near the existing one on an exterior wall of the church. This prominent location adjacent to the St. Francis Garden is nestled along the peaceful pathway that winds between the Garden and the Hope Bell Tower.

Future site of memorial wall along south side of church

For a limited time, you may purchase and reserve the space(s) of your choice, subject to availability. You may purchase up to six contiguous spaces of your choosing on the memorial wall.

The image to the left is an artistic rendering. The final design may vary.

The current fee for a permanent inscription on the new memorial wall is $2,500 per person. This amount funds the inscription itself and helps offset the costs of maintaining the memorial wall, fountain, and grounds of the St. Francis Garden. It also supports ministries of the parish.
